When talking about this technology we can use the name of it as: AVC+MVC5 AVC codec is a standard used by many video players. When it comes to MP4, AVC-AAC, MP3 it's used for all video formats. When it comes to MP4 and VOB it allows to encode/decode the video content in high quality to the MPEG 4 or 8K bitrate, thus allowing higher bit rates to enjoy the video more effectively. This is something new and only started using AVCAVE (Avant-garde converter) with MPEG 4 codec in 2009 in order to reduce file size drastically.
